INVOCATION

WHY 3 GRAINS CHANGED EVERYTHING ON AKSHAYA TRITIYA

Akshaya Trithiya is considered one of the most auspicious days in Hindu tradition. It symbolizes never ending prosperity, success and good fortune . Any new work started on this day is believed to grow continuously.

The day is linked to a story from the Mahabharata, where Draupadi called Krishna in a moment of crisis. With just a few grains of food, Krishna satisfied everyone symbolizing endless abundance.

The story goes like this

During exile, the Pandavas faced constant struggle and uncertainty. Food was limited, and survival itself felt like a daily challenge. In this difficult time, Yudhishtira prayed to Surya (the Sun God) and he was blessed with a Akshaya Patra (a magical vessel that provided endless food until Draupadi had eaten). It became the lifeline of Pandavas, offering relief in a harsh reality. But one day, circumstances took a sudden turn. What once felt secure was about to be tested. A situation was approaching that would challenge not just their survival, but their faith, patience, and trust in the divine like never before.

Duryodhana, known for his cunning, saw an opportunity. He invited Durvasa and sent him to the Pandavas after Draupadi had already eaten. The Early days the ladies will eat only after all the male members and children of the family finished their meals. The Akshaya Patra was now empty.

Feeding the sage Durvasa and his disciples was impossible. And everyone knew Durvasa's anger could bring destruction. Fear filled the moment. There seemed to be no escape.

With no food left and no solution in sight, Draupadi felt completely helpless, It was a moment of deep uncertainty, where every option seemed closed and fear quietly took over. This is something many people experience in their own lives when nothing seems to work. But instead of giving in to panic Draupadi choose faith. She turned inward and called out to Krishna the Supreme soul with complete surrender. It was not despite shout but a calm and honest prayer from the heart. In that silent trust, she found strength, showing that sometimes the most powerful help comes when we truly let go.

Krishna arrived calmly and asked for food, Surprised, Draupadi, showed him the empty vessel. But Krishna found three tiny grains of rice left inside. He ate them with satisfaction. And in that very moment, something unbelievable happened the hunger of the entire universe satisfied. Durvasa and his disciples felt completely full their stomach and left without asking for food. A crisis turned into a miracle.

The day linked to the story, where Draupadi called Krishna in a moment of crisis, her faith and trust on him, with just a few grains of good in the vessel, and called out to Krishna with complete surrender Krishna satisfied everyone, symbolizing endless abundance. This is the symbol of Bhakthi.

This moment gave birth to the meaning of "AKSHAYA" that which never ends. It is not just about wealth or gold, but about blessings that flow endlessly. Even today, people start new journeys, buy gold, and offer gratitude. In places like Puri, sacred rituals begin on this day. Farmers offer their first grains to the earth. It is a reminder that true abundance begins with faith, not possession.

Sometimes, abundance doesn't begin when you have everything. It begins when you have nothing but still choose faith. Akshaya Trithiya is not just a festival it is a reminder that even the smallest offering, when filled with belief, can become endless. In the end, it's not about how much you have, it's about how deeply you trust.

The word "AKSHAYA" means "never diminishing" or "eternal". It represents blessings, wealth, and success that do not decrease over time.

Yes, this day is considered highly favourable for starting new ventures, investments, or personal goals, as it is believed to bring long-term success.

What If just three grains of rice could change destiny? It sounds impossible. But this is exactly what makes Akshaya Tritiya so powerful. A day believed to bring endless blessings didn't start with wealth or gold it began in a moment of fear, hunger, and helplessness. A story where everything was about to fall apart until something unseen shifted everything. And that is where the real meaning of "Akshaya" never ending was born.

Appeal for Redevelopment of Bhakta Sangham Srikrishna Temple & Community Hall

Proposed Temple, after Renovation

Dear Devotees and Well-Wishers,

Bhakta Sangham is a well-known religious institution in Mulund West, conducting religious activities as traditionally practiced in Kerala and caters to the needs of devotees who utilize Sangham's community hall for conducting family, cultural and socio-religious functions.

Since its registration as a Religious and Charitable Trust in 1973, BHAKTA SANGHAM initially started with namasamkeertanams (Bhajans) and functions were conducted from hired venues. Through dedicated efforts of the founder members, the Sangham successfully completed its own temple and community hall in 1986. The temple houses Lord Shri Krishna (Guruvayurappan), Dharmasastha (Ayyappan), Parashakthi (Durga), and Ganapathy, serving as the devotional hub for worship.

BHAKTA SANGHAM hosts a variety of significant religious events, including Mandala Season activities like Sapthaham, regular Bhajans, and Sastha Preeti (Ayyappa Pooja), featuring eminent Vedantic scholars. We also arrange discourses by popular artists on epics such as Ramayanam, Narayaneeyam, Srimad Bhagavatham (Bhagavat Katha) and Devi Mahathmyam during auspicious occasions. Sampoorana Narayaneeyam is a regular event on Shukla Ekadasi, with sponsored renditions increasing. Since 2022, the Sangham has also been conducting poor feeding for approximately 400 people monthly on our Temple's consecration day (Makeeram Star day). On all Pradosham days, we conduct Pradosha puja with Laghunyasa Rudrabhishekam and Archana to Lord Siva (subsequent to Ashtamangala Prashna findings).

The SANGHAM actively promotes spiritual learning by conducting regular and well-received classes on Vedas, Upanishads, and other scriptures.

Charitable Endeavors

As a charitable organization, the SANGHAM actively supports deserving individuals. This includes reimbursing medical expenses and providing financial aid to promote education for underprivileged students.

Temple Redevelopment Project

Our existing temple and community hall complex is almost 40 years old. Due to increasing requests from the community for modern amenities like a lift, car parking, and accommodation, the Managing Committee of Bhakta Sangham in consultation with members, has decided to undertake a comprehensive redevelopment of the existing temple complex and community hall. This project aims to provide upgraded facilities and convenience for all devotees.

Astrological Consultation and Findings

Before proceeding, an Ashtamangala Prasnam was conducted on March 28-29, 2024, by renowned astrologer Br. Shri B. Padmanabha Sharma. The findings advised various Pariharams (remedial rituals) and essential modifications, including a new temple for Lord Subrahmanya to be constructed and consecrated as per Tantrik vidhi. Another key advise was to complete the Temple (Phase 1) before starting the Community Hall project (phase 2). As per Prashnam findings, Shri Kanippayyur Krishnan Nambudiripad has been designated as the architect and Vastu expert for Phase 1.

All prescribed Pariharams have since been successfully completed.

Project Timeline

The next step in Phase 1 requires the temporary relocation and reinstallation of the existing idols into separate Balalayam in the ground floor Community Hall. This work, along with all tantric rituals, is scheduled to begin at the end of June 2025 and conclude by July 16, 2025 (the last day of Uttarayanam).

Following this, the major work inside the temple will begin on July 16, 2025 (Last day of Uttarayanam). Work on Phase 1 is estimated to take 15 to 18 months. Upon completion, all the deities will be reinstalled in the newly renovated temples with the proper religious Tantric rites, Naveekarana Kalasham, and Kumbhabhishekam.

Support Our Temple Redevelopment

The cost for only the Phase 1 is estimated at ₹ 5 Crores. This ambitious project relies entirely on your generous financial support, through liberal donations and sponsorships.

The Managing Committee deeply appreciates your unwavering support over the years and earnestly appeals to all devotees to contribute generously to this noble cause and receive the blessings of Lord Guruvayurappan and all the deities of our temple.

Located at Bhaktasangham Chowk, P.K. Road, Mulund West, Mumbai 400 080, this sacred complex has been a vital spiritual and cultural landmark for over 40 years, serving thousands of devotees from diverse backgrounds from all over India.

The Profound Virtues of Temple Construction and Renovation

The Agni Purana (Chapter 38) elaborates on the immense spiritual benefits derived from constructing, renovating, and supporting the building of a temple. As the text states:

अग्रिरुवाच

वासुदेवाद्यालयस्य कृतौ वक्ष्ये फलादिकं।
चिकीर्षोर्देवधामादि सहस्रजनिपापनुत्॥
मनसा सद्भक्तृणां शतजन्माघनाशनम्।
येनुमोदन्ति कृष्णस्य क्रियमाणं नरा गृहमां॥
तेपि पापैः विनिर्मुक्ताः प्रयान्त्युत्तलोकताम्।
समतीतं भविष्यच्च कुलानामयुतं नरः॥

This verse highlights that a person who desires to build a temple is freed from sins accumulated over a thousand births. Those who simply contemplate building a temple are absolved of sins from a hundred births. Furthermore, those who merely appreciate or encourage the construction of a temple for Krishna are also freed from sins and attain the abode of the Lord. The Agni Purana emphasizes that taking part in such sacred activities frees one from sins incurred over a thousand lifetimes.

Donors and their families are said to attain Vaikunta, the abode of Lord Vishnu, both for their past and future generations. Such an individual is believed to receive the merit of bathing in all holy rivers and tirthas, securing a place in Vishnu's realm. They and their descendants are blessed with happiness, bliss, and virtuous children.

A Unique Opportunity for Blessings

The Managing Committee appeals to all devotees to become an integral part of this noble endeavor. Building, renovating, and performing Punaruddharanam (restoration) of a temple is considered an act of immense virtue. It is truly rare to witness such a significant event in one's lifetime, and participating in it in any role is considered highly auspicious.

We believe that the ever-merciful Lord Guruvayurappan has bestowed upon us this fortunate opportunity and continues to shower His blessings. We should all feel incredibly fortunate and blessed to be part of this Satkarma (virtuous deed).

With humility, devotion, and faith, we seek your support for the Redevelopment and Punaruddharanam of Bhakta Sangham Sri Krishna Temple.

The major items for devotional service and contributions are given below.
